The Greek School of Cambridge, in Cambridge UK, is currently seeking highly motivated Greek Language and Culture Instructors to support a range of lessons in teaching the Greek language to pupils of 4-16 years old having Greek as a primary or secondary language.

Location: 154 Cherry Hinton Rd, Cambridge, CB1 7AJ

Status: Part-time, hourly based

Schedule: Mostly on Saturdays, from 9:00am until 05:00pm

Deadline of applications: July 6th, 2019

Way of application: Please send your CV and a short motivation letter to khomenidou@gmail.com

Responsibilities:

- Plan and/or conduct small and/or large group Greek language classes using a wide variety of language teaching methodologies and techniques, with focus on speaking, listening comprehension, and reading skills.
- Use established training materials and work collaboratively and closely with other instructors to create a lovely and happy learning environment.
- Conduct informal or formal progress evaluations and administer quizzes and assessments to evaluate student progress as appropriate.
- As needed, assist with the preparation and procedure of formal assessments of the Greek Language (Ministry of Education in Greece).

Required Qualifications:

- Having Greek language as primary language.
- A minimum of two years' experience teaching children/adult learners Greek language in a classroom setting (5 or more students).
- BA/BS, MA/MS, or Ph.D., or foreign equivalent degree(s) in any field related to language education from a Greek University.
- A minimum of three years' experience teaching foreign language with proficiency-based or task-based curricula.
- A minimum English proficiency level.

Additional Preferred Qualifications:

- Experience teaching Greek as a foreign language preferred
- Experience teaching with the communicative approach preferred
- Experience incorporating a variety of educational technology in teaching preferred
- Experience teaching blending learning activities valued

This position reports to the School Committee of the Greek School of Cambridge (GSC).